The complex is a much-studied work that was erected at the entrance of the village Arakapas, next to one of the two rivers. It is a mixed residential development with 14 flats (studio, 1, and 2 bedrooms). It is a project which certainly covers all the needs for permanent and holiday home, with excellent architecture functionality and sufficient data from natural stone, wood, and natural tiles.

The building constructed with high-quality materials, with our professional staff, and certainly with the care, quality, and long term experience since 1979.
