This is a charming renovated stonehouse comprising two bedrooms, family bathroom, open plan kitchen/dining/lounge area. The lounge area has two stone arches giving feature to the property and further purports a stone fireplace, there is also patio doors leading to the courtyard.

The history of this property is that it belonged to the family over 150 years ago and was originally a cow shed. One of the features still in the house today after renovation is the stone plinth with wooden trough from where the animals fed from!

The property really does have a trully homely feel and would suit country lovers wishing to spend a ?sega sega? way of life. The village is very friendly and the community boasts approximately 40 ex-pat families living around. The village also has a little tavern, bank, petrol pump, cafeneo and a village shop.

CHARMING PROPERTY - VIEWING IS ESSENTIAL TO APPRECIATE!
