* Stone built * 1 building with outhouse * Large plot 1250m2 * Open fire * Water-well * Village location * Quaint rustic area * Plenty of potential * Grants available * Large building factor

This property presents an ideal opportunity for someone looking for a renovation project. It is in an area which attracts investment so anyone buying it is entitled to government grants towards renovation costs. It also has a large building factor of at least 90%.

It's a single storey stone-building on a large plot in the charming village of Drousia. It's within walking distance of the village centre which is a very friendly quiet, typical Cypriot village with lots of character.

The building is serviced with electricity and telephone cables and sits on one of the larger plots in the village.

View this property to appreciate the potential.
