Aphrodite village is a unique design set in agricultural land yet only 3 minutes walk to the bakery, taverna, mini market and new entertainment centre in Prodromi. The apartments are situated within 5 minutes from the market square in Polis and 8 minutes from the harbour at Latchi, the beaches are about 6 minutes away.

The development has a very large communal pool with landscaped gardens and sun terrace area. There will be changing room facilities and toilet facilities and a pool side bar. Most of the car parking will be covered and all will be allocated.

The unique design includes long narrow windows, some stone finishes, small veranda area at the front and the rear of each property and many of the ground floor properties have a small garden area. Each of the apartments has been designed to be situated in a small apartment block giving more private access and a semi detached feel.

One bedroom properties start from 52 sq m plus verandas. Each one bedroom apartment has its own separate entrance and is semi detached. There is a full size bathroom and double bedroom with good living space and open plan fitted kitchen.

This is an ideal location for a long term investment and for those who want to buy off plan with flexible stage payments. This is a good holiday home and holiday rental investment.
