This traditional Cypriot property is situated in the heart of the village of Tsada but nestled into a lovely quiet corner. The village is only an 8 minute drive to Pafos and 15 minutes to Polis. The village itself is very traditional but offers all the local amenities such as banks, coffee shops, post office, etc. and all are within easy walking distance from the property.
The house consists of a very large court yard with two traditionally designed buildings. One building houses two double bedrooms and are one level, whilst the other building is on two levels. One the ground floor you will find an open plan kitchen/lounge area with a shower room, and accessed by a spiral staircase are two more double bedrooms and a master bathroom.
The property has kept most of its original features and offers an outside life style with a large courtyard, outside dining, a wooden pergola and lovely views to Pafos and the sea.
The title deeds to the property are available and viewing must be made to appreciate this quaint village property.
